There's not much to say about the color. It's not that great. It's almost olive or a greenish tint, and it doesn't show up well on darker skinned people. It's pretty much just a silhouette of a face on a body. Same with the reflection coming off the hair. If the light is coming from behind you, it's a lot better, but if the light is coming from the side or coming from straight on, then it just looks like a picture.

Raymond James Financial Raymond James Financial (RJF) is a retail brokerage firm based in Saint Petersburg, Florida, that offers financial products and services to residents of Tampa Bay, Florida. It was founded in 1989 by William Thomas Raymond and was originally based in New Jersey, but later moved to Florida. As of 2012, the company employs over 6,200 people and had approximately $13 billion in assets under management. As of March 31, 2011, it had approximately 68,000 active retail accounts. History William Raymond joined Raymond James Financial in 1986 as a broker. His brother, Thomas, joined in 1989 and was named president in

[3] In support of its argument, the plaintiff cites the New Jersey case of O'Flynn v. State, 72 N.J.Super. 473, 178 A.2d 616 (App.Div.1962), which is, however, completely distinguishable from the present case. In O'Flynn, the two defendants were accused of conspiring to have their tenant's aunt murdered because the aunt was threatening to reveal that one of the defendants was the father of her deceased husband. The aunt took this matter to the police. In the course of the investigation, the defendant paid the deceased's attorney $100 to report the loss of a wallet and its contents to the police, with the intent that the wallet would be found in the possession of the decedent's son. In an effort to conceal her relationship with the deceased, the defendant paid him $30 a week for three weeks, ending in the week prior to the murder. She also paid him for repairing the truck he drove. The State's * * * [the defendant's] and the deceased's sister [the aunt] were the only persons known to both defendant and her brother [the deceased]. There was evidence of an intimate relationship between the two, the defendant having taken the sister to recuperate from her illness and then taking care of her for a considerable time. On appeal, the court ruled that it was improper for the State to proceed on a theory of "concerted action" because the parties had no common interest to pursue. The New Jersey court further ruled that the payment by the defendant to the deceased's attorney was not in furtherance of the common goal
